

- ❑ Backend Communication: You can modify the `storeFileContent` function to send the data (filename and content) to a backend server or save it in a local database or `localStorage`.
- ❑ Accessing Stored Data: You could implement a way to access the stored data later by mapping filenames to their respective contents.

